BRIAN PETERS JOINS FRANKLIN SQUARE GROUP, LLC

Washington, DC - Franklin Square Group, LLC today announced Capitol Hill veteran and high-tech industry leader Brian Peters plans to join the firm. Peters most recently served as Director of Government Relations for Research In Motion (RIM), representing the BlackBerry maker on key technology issues on Capitol Hill and within the Administration. Prior to his work at RIM, Peters worked for the Information Technology Industry Council, leading the technology industry's advocacy efforts on telecommunications, spectrum, e-commerce, privacy, trade, and energy policy, and as a policy advisor to Rep. Jay Inslee (D-WA) on the House Energy and Commerce Committee.

"We are very pleased to have Brian join the Franklin Square Group. His policy expertise and leadership on issues key to today's innovation sector will be extremely valuable to our clients," said Matt Tanielian, Co-Founder of the Franklin Square Group.

"I couldn't be more excited to work with such a great team and cutting-edge clients. The Franklin Square Group has a uniquely fresh approach to advocacy in Washington, and I look forward to amplifying all our strengths."

"We are extremely fortunate to have Brian on board the Franklin Square Group team", said Josh Ackil, Co-Founder of the Franklin Square Group. "Brian has established himself as a key player on issues that affect some of the brightest spots in our economy, including green energy and telecommunications."
